Who we are:

RightNow is a Christian Media organization in Richardson, TX with 95 creative and energetic people on our team. We love hard work but we also have a very family friendly environment.

We love serving churches. To accomplish our mission, RightNow is involved in several initiatives to equip the church. We have served over 110,000 churches through our video Bible study resources (BluefishTV.com), leadership conferences (RightNowConferences.org) and online training tools (RightNowTraining.org). The RightNow team has worked with great teachers and communicators including Max Lucado, Francis Chan, Third Day, Dave Ramsey, Chris Tomlin, Matt Chandler, Gary Thomas, Chip Ingram and many more. We are on a mission to help people trade in the pursuit of the American Dream for a world that desperately needs Christ.

We are expanding into some new opportunities which require people with a variety of skills and passions. You can learn more about our mission and our projects at these websites listed above and at RightNow.org
